FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WILLIAMS JUDGED TWELFTH ANNUAL SECURITIES DISPUTE TRIATHLON

An Initiative by The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and The Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution

New York, New York – October 16, 2021 –Veronica Williams, Managing Director at ACT Inc., served as a judge at the Seventh Annual Securities Dispute Triathlon. A FINRA Arbitrator Chairperson, with more than 30 years delivering financial, operational and technical solutions to the financial services industry, Williams brings a wealth of expertise and insight into securities matters. Williams recently authored Securitization: Long Term Effects of Securitizing Mortgages, published by Discover/IT® and released by FinFix. See <https://finfix.org/SecuritizationArticleReleased/>. Backed by a Kellogg MBA in Finance and Economics, and other globally recognized credentials, Ms. Williams has been an advisor to firms in financial services, telecommunications and computing.

“Students work hard to show their exceptional talent in this well produced event”, said Williams. “I am honored to participate and applaud FINRA, St. John’s University and all participating universities for another great year.”

The Twelfth Annual Securities Dispute Triathlon was held October 16th and 17th in New York City.

About The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon

The Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon is a joint initiative of the Hugh L. Carey Center for Dispute Resolution and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Triathlon provides student teams from participating law schools an opportunity to demonstrate their advocacy skills in negotiation, mediation and arbitration of a securities dispute. FINRA neutrals serve as judges, mediators and arbitrators. The Sixth Annual Securities Dispute Resolution Triathlon will take place October 18 – 19, 2014, at the St. John’s University School of Law, Manhattan Campus. For more information visit
